MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Amory

Three things:

STATOTHR

1. You raised the question [redacted] seeing the Director and the Director said he would like to see him. I am told by NEA in Washington that [redacted] is back at work in Chicago. It would be, I think, rather expensive for him to make a special trip here to see Mr. Dulles but I am not familiar with the circumstances where he said he would like to see the Director. He apparently was de-briefed by OO/C but again I do not know where. Will you let me have your opinion as to whether [redacted] should be asked to come here to see the Director at a time and date of the Director's choice.

2. [redacted] has been instructed by his New York headquarters to gather all the data he can on the international posture of Red China and on its economic status. He asked if you will give him some time because his New York office has stated that some time ago you were very high on Red China's economic and industrial potential and it now appears that you were correct. I told him of the time that you and others had given to this with [redacted] STATOTHR only to have a completely different story come out. Beal knows of this and they are now anxious again to get your viewpoint. RECOMMEND that you see [redacted] preferably this week is possible, STATOTHR at a time convenient to you.

3. I meant to ask you what [redacted] is up to. I notice that STATOTHR he saw the Director and that you had lunch with him today. Some time ago I was told that he planned a CIA story for the POST. (Ma (over post))
